

The Situation in New Mexico

IN THE DELEGATESHIP RACE
NEITHER SIDE IS SURE OF ITS GROUND.

Republicans Are Doubtful—Where a Week Ago They Claimed a Plurality of 8,000, Have Now Dropped to 2,000.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 7.—The interest in politics has overshadowed all others lately. The contest between the two great parties is proving to be much closer than had been anticipated by the Republicans. The claim that the Republicans would elect W. H. Andrews to Congress by 8,000 plurality despite the candidacy of Delegate B. S. Rodey on the Independent Republican ticket, is being modified considerably and plurality of 2,000 seems to be the highest that is now hoped for. But even this is being scaled down by reports of a phenomenal increase in the vote to be cast in the eastern, southern and northern counties, while in the Mexican counties, which have been the chief reliance of the Republicans, the vote will be no larger than two years ago and several of these, such as Taos, Santa Fe and Union are considered wobbly, while Bernalillo and Valencia are not trusted any too well. In Santa Fe county the entire Republican ticket seems doomed to defeat and if the Hubbellis should prove treacherous in Bernalillo and pass that county over to Rodey, then the Republican soup will be in the fire. The following four forecasts have been made after a careful canvass and investigation, the first two by the Republicans and the last two by the Democrats:

Andrews, 21,850 votes; Money, 17,600 votes; Rodey, 2,705.
Andrews, 19,450; Money, 17,400; Rodey, 2,600.
Money, 20,400; Andrews, 15,650; Rodey, 5,550.
Money, 17,750; Andrews, 15,450; Rodey, 4,450.

That the Rodey vote will cut considerably of a figure is shown by the above as both sides admit that Money will poll from 15,000 to 19,000 votes and Andrews and Rodey together, 20,000 to 24,000 votes. The man who can fortell the exact number of votes that Rodey will poll, can fortell the result to a certainty.

GOOD READING.
To the ordinary person a blacksmith shop holds little interest. But there are shops and other shops. The E. B. Mason blacksmith shop at Lowell is the most modern institution of its kind in this part of the Territory. An electric Buffalo blower makes the sparks fly from two forges. A shoeing rack, a late appliance, makes shoeing of bronchos and fractious horses as easy as shoeing old Dobbin, the family horse.

In the vehicle department is a rubber tire machine of the latest pattern. A boring machine for hubs, an immense stock of wheels from the heavy wagon wheel to the light buggy wheel, and material and jewelry for repair work covering everything necessary for the repairing of any kind of broken or missing part in almost any vehicle. Another feature, just a telephone message to 69 or 24 and a man will call for your buggy or wagon if broken, or your horse if he needs shoeing, and will return it to you promptly. There's nothing too large or too small for us to call for.

Court at El Paso Determines That
No frauds Exist—Decision Comprises a Complete Vindication of Accused Democrats.

El Paso, Nov. 7.—Judge Goggin today in the presence of one of the largest crowds that ever filled the forty-first district court room refused to grant a final injunction against certain Democratic candidates and campaign managers upon the application of a number of Republican candidates who alleged that the Democrats held a number of poll tax receipts illegally issued which they intended to use in a manner contrary to law for the purpose of debauching the election tomorrow.

The ground upon which Judge Goggin refused to grant the injunction was that the application for the injunction did not set up a state of facts that would justify the interference of a court of equity and that if any of the apprehended wrongs were committed the aggrieved parties would have their remedy in an election contest. In other words, the court held that the applicants for the writ did not and could not show that the respondents had committed any violation of the law in reference to poll tax receipts and that their action was, therefore, premature and in fact unwarranted in law. This point was raised upon a demurrer to the application and while the court's ruling was founded upon a point of law the sweeping and unequivocal denials of the respondents to all of the allegations of the Republican document stood out in the hearing as a refutation of the charges made by the applicants and as a complete vindication of the Democrats attacked in the proceeding.
